

Dimitri Penchev – Founder & Program Director

Dimitri Penchev is an internationally experienced tennis coach and educator with more than 40 years of coaching experience across Europe, North America, and Asia. He holds a Master's Degree in Sport Coaching & Physical Education, a PhD in Sport Psychology, is a Tennis Canada Certified Coach 3, and a Certified Life Coach.

Throughout his career, Dimitri has worked in high-performance athlete development, coach education, and program leadership. His passion for inclusion and community impact inspired the creation of Inclusive Racket Sports Society and the development of the All Abilities Tennis™ and All Abilities Pickleball™ programs.