

Collin Ross

Director – Pickleball Development & Community Programs

Collin Ross is a certified tennis and pickleball coach with more than 15 years of experience developing inclusive and community-focused racquet sports programs.

His coaching philosophy emphasizes accessibility, personal growth, and creating welcoming environments where individuals of all abilities can participate and thrive.

Collin has extensive experience in tennis, pickleball, fitness training, and youth development, and has played leadership roles at Richmond Country Club, Global Tennis Academy, and Elite Tennis Academy. He is also former co-owner of New Era Athletics and brings a strong background in fitness and martial arts instruction.

He is passionate about using sport as a tool for confidence building, inclusion, and community connection.